Cool Comfort – Quiet, Convenient, and Quick Installation

The Hisense AP0921CR1G Portable Air Conditioner provides convenient performance. Long-distance airflow is strong, cool, and quiet because of the new air flow design. Additionally, the air louver automatically opens to a preset position after the unit is powered on and can be adjusted with the included remote. The easy-to-install snap-together window kit fits windows 18" to 50" wide, helping preserve the external appearance of your home.
